KANSAS TOWN BOASTS

A 9-YEAR-OLD WIDOW

Hutchinson, Kan.—Hutchinson claims the youngest widow in the United States, sheeshu, a little Hindu girl, 9 years old, has just arrived with Mrs. D. G. Eaton, of this city, a missionary in India.

The little girl will receive training for missionary work in the local Nazarine College. Wed at the age of 5, she became an outcast when her husband died a year later. The Hindus believe a husband dies only when his wife is unfaithful or misbehaves.

QUESTION CLEARED UP

Hopkinsville Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

Again and again we have read of strangers in distant towns who have been cured by this or that medicine.
But Hopkinsville's pertinent question has always been "Has anyone here in Hopkinsville been cured?" The word of a stranger living a hundred miles away may be true, but it cannot have the same weight with us as the word of our own citizens, whom we know and respect, and whose evidence we can so easily prove.

Mrs. J. T. Cannon, 609 O'Neal St., Hopkinsville, says: "I have given Doan's Kidney Pills to my children at various times and have always found them beneficial. Whenever one of my children is bothered with kidney weakness, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills relieve the attack."

WISDOM IN MOTHER'S WORDS

After All, Neatness Cannot Be Considered the Greatest Necessity of the Home.

A lady received the following reply from a neighbor in answer to a question as to why she allowed her children and her husband to litter up every room in the house. The sentiment will find lodgment in the heart of every home-loving person in the land: "The marks of little, muddy feet upon the floor can be more easily removed than the stains where the little feet go into the highways of sin. The prints of the little fingers upon the window panes cannot shut out the sunshine half so much as the shadow that darkens the mother's heart over the one who will be but a name in the coming year. And if my John finds home a refuge from care and his greatest happiness within its four walls, he can put his boots in the rocking chair and hang his hat on the floor any day in the week.
And if I can stand it and he enjoys it, I cannot see that it is anybody's business."—Nicholas.

Rattlesnake Kills Eagle.

An eagle, the wings of which measured more than seven feet from tip to tip, was worsted recently by a mother rattlesnake near Tarentum, Pa., when the pirate of the air tried to seize several little rattlers which the mother was protecting. The eagle swooped to the ground and attempted to seize several of the baby snakes in its talons. Before it could rise, however, the mother had struck, burying her fangs in the eagle's breast. The big bird rose to a dizzy height, faltered and plunged to the earth, dead.

When Baby Cries.

Fits of crying, indicative of discomfort if not pain, in babies, usually after meals, are quite universally attributed almost universally to the food.
It would be well, however, if attention were given to the clothes at the same time—if there are no other indications of the diet given disagreeing with the baby—for in very many cases these are to blame. Very often there is something tight around the little abdomen, the binder, to which mothers and nurses cling so jealously, being frequently at fault.

Truth About the Poor.
A great deal of undeveloped and lost talent has belonged among God's poor.

BEST DOG FOR SHEEP FLOCK

Rattle-Brained Cur is Much Out of of Place—Collie is Most Excellent for Herding Purposes.

The rattle-brained cur is as much out of place in the flock as the man of hasty temper, cruelty, thoughtless-ness and disinclination or lack of natural talent for his work. The dog should be born to sheep tending and should be early accustomed to sheep and trained in their care.

Many years ago it was a practice in Texas to take a puppy from its dam before the eyes had opened and place it with a ewe, let her nurse it and allow the puppy to grow up with Splendid Sheep Dog.

the sheep and be with them night and day. Then the dog would become the natural defender of the flock against all dangers and foes, stay with them all of the time and possess their confidence. It was also stated that a dog so raised would bring in the flock at a given hour, when accustomed to be fed at that time.

Sheep know a strange dog instantly.
The dog to work among them must not be strange to the sheep in any way, must have their confidence and command their respect and be able to "boss" them when that becomes necessary. The collie is the dog for such service. Sheep herding has been the work of the breed for generations and to tend sheep is a hereditary tendency in the well-bred collie.

No dog bred and born otherwise is worth raising for work among sheep and it is waste of time to train a wrong dog for such work.—American Sheep Breeder.

HORSES IN UNITED STATES

According to Estimate of Department of Agriculture There Were 21, 195,000 on January 1.

The United States department of agriculture estimates the number of horses in the United States on January 1st of each year, except 1910, when the April census figures are used, as follows: 1910, 19,833,000; 1911, 20, 277,000; 1912, 20,509,000; 1913, 20,567, 000; 1914, 20,962,000; 1915, 21,195,000.

In spite of automobiles and everything else it can be seen that the horse is gradually gaining in numbers.
In spite of the heavy exportation of horses on account of the war, the total amount available is so great that the exports are not materially reducing the supply. It is doubtful also if the war will affect American horse-raising very greatly. In the western fighting everything appears to be trench warfare, where cavalry is of little use and the slaughter of artillery horses must be moderate, while on the eastern front Russia has millions of horses and would not need to call on America, even if shipments would be possible. One of the ways America is hardest hit is in the supply of imported draft stallions.

VENTILATION FOR THE BARN

All Stables Should Be Fairly lofty, Because Horses Need Abundance of Good Fresh Air.

The horse is very susceptible to cold; and the horses that are stabled when not being worked or exercised feel the changes of weather quite as readily as do those enjoying a more free life.

All stables should be fairly lofty, because horses need plenty of fresh air, and this can only be properly given during intense cold when ventilation can be given above the heads of the animals so far as elevation is concerned, the position of the ventilators mattering little so long as they are at a good height and placed with judgment.

The stable should feel cozy upon going in, but not stuffy, otherwise the horses will feel chilly upon coming out.

Autumn Care of Colts.
Look out for the weanlings and colts as cold weather approaches. Be sure that they go into winter quarters in the pink of condition, for there is where the profit comes in.

Keep Sows in Condition.
It is not wise to allow young sows to become too fat, as they never make as good breeders as those with more development of muscle.

ROYAL WEDDING FOR END OF FEBRUARY

Emperor William Said to Hope the war Will Be Over by
That Time.

London, Dec. 10.—Emperor William has fixed the date for the marriage of his youngest son, Prince Joachim, to Princess Marie of Anhalt for the end of February at Potsdam, says a dispatch to the exchange Telegraph Company from Amsterdam, which gives a message from Casel, Prussia, as authority for the statement.

"The marriage was to have taken place before Christmas," says the dispatch. "The emperor and empress hope that the war will be ended by February and they, therefore, postponed the marriage ceremony until that time. Should the war not have been concluded by the date set for the wedding, the ceremony will be extremely simple."

SISTERS ENTER CONVENT

Daughters of F. P. Walsh Take White Veil at Louisville, Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 10.—Misses Marie and Louise Walsh, of Kansas City, daughters of Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the federal committee on industrial relations, took the white veil at the Loretto convent, Loretto, Ky. The young women passed through Louisville with Mr. and Mrs. Walsh and two friends, Miss Marie Burnett and Miss Ella Collins, of Kansas City, Mo. They were postulants at Loretto convent near Kansas City, and came to Loretto, the mother house, in this state to take the veil with a large class of other girls.

She Stayed in Bed.

ogram, Tex.—"Ever since I became a woman," writes Mrs. E. M.
Evans, of this place, "I suffered from womanly troubles. Last fall I got so bad, I had to stay in bed for nearly a week every month. Since I have taken Cardui, I feel better than I have for years." You can rely on Cardui. It acts on the womanly organs and helps the system to regain its normal state of health, in a natural way. Prepared especially for women, it prevents womanly pains, by acting on the cause, and builds up womanly strength in a natural way. Purely vegetable, mild, but certain in action. Try it.

OVERRULES MOTION TO MODIFY INJUNCTION

Federal Judge Evans Denies Request of L. & L.
Railroad.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 10.—Judge Evans in federal court overruled the motion of the Louisville & Nashville railroad asking for a modification of the injunction forbidding the company's interference with the Western Union Telegraph company's use of poles and wires along the railroad's right-of-way in the state of Georgia and in Vanderburgh county, Indiana.

The telegraph company now asks to condemn the right-of-way for use of its own equipment. Attorneys for the railroad contended these cases have been settled in the state courts, and that the injunction as affecting the case be dissolved. The judge thought differently, however, and ruled that the injunction now affecting the entire right-of-way of the L. & N. system remain in force.
